

Went abroad as Chief of the Medical Service of Base Hospital No. 48, which he helped to raise, but spent five months as Commanding Officer of the Convalescent Camp, Mars Hospital Center, the largest and most complete in France. Was consulting dermatologist to the Mars Hospital Center for five months.

Professional Appointments. Professor of Dermatology, New York Homeopathic Medical College and Flower Hospital; Clinical Professor of Dermatology, New York Hospital and College for Women; Attending or Consulting Dermatologist to the following: Metropolitan Hospital (Department of Public Charities, New York City), Flower Hospital, Hahnemann Hospital, Laura Franklin Free Hospital for Children, Yonkers Homeopathic Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital (Passaic, N. J.), Ann May Memorial Hospital (Spring Lake, N. J.), Jamaica Hospital, Hungerford Memorial Hospital (Torrington, Conn.).

Has written many articles and a number of books on travels, hunting and dermatology, including "Diseases of the Skin, Including the Exanthemata," published by Boericke and Tafel in 1913. This is the textbook in all the homeopathic medical colleges.

Married Anna Gayle Nornell of Nashville, Tenn., in 1910, and has two children, Frederick M., Jr., and William N. Dearborn.

---

AN OFFICIAL OPINION OF BASE HOSPITAL NO. 48

Headquarters Hospital Center A. P. O. 780

February 7, 1919.

Medical Board Metropolitan Hospital,
Dept. Public Charities,
City of New York.

Gentlemen:

It gives me great pleasure to report on the splendid work done here at Mars Hospital Center by Base Hospital No. 48, organized from the Metropolitan Hospital of New York, Lt. Colonel Frederick M. Dearborn being the Chairman of your Committee, Lt. Colonel William F. Honan the Director of the Unit, and under the command of Lt. Colonel William D. Herbert, U. S. Army.

Base Hospital No. 48 reported at Mars Hospital Center on July 25th, 1918, and, with Base Hospital No. 68, cared for the first train of patients which arrived here on August 2nd. From that time on until sometime after the armistice was signed, this hospital has been constantly busy, having handled a large number of cases and always with great professional credit. The work at times has been exceedingly hard for the professional personnel as many of the doctors were called to the front, leaving us very shorthanded at the rear. Colonel Honan's work in